

D. CRAWFORD & CO.'S

A handsome Triple-Plated Water Pitcher, large size, frosted and beautifully chased, many designs, $3.50. Same other dealers are marking down to $4.50 with such a fuss! You save $1.00.

You couldn't make a housekeeper a more appropriate or elegant present: Silver-Plated Dinner Knives, $1.75 a dozen. Can you do that well anywhere else? We think not.

Roger Bros.' Silver-Plated Dinner Knives, $3.00 a dozen. Plated Forks, 60 cents a set. Roger Bros.' Plated Forks, elegant designs, $3. Spoons, 50 cents to $3.00 a set. These are all triple and quadruple plated goods, and are guaranteed to be what we call them. Then there are other articles in Silverware, such as Gold-Lined Goblets, very handsome, for $1.00; Card Receivers, Casters, Sugar Bowls and the like, and Fruit Bowls and Baskets, elegant, $1.00 and $3.00. Nice present to a country friend. Butter Dishes, $2.50—triple-plate.

Some people think they can get the best Plated Ware only of exclusive silverware dealers.

They're mistaken. Exclusiveness is played out in this country. I thought so, too, once; I don't now. And here's the reason:

A certain well-known house advertised a tremendous auction sale of their stock. In everybody's mouth that So-and-So would auction off their elegant goods. I thought, now's my chance. Bought forks and spoons. Met a friend.

"Humph! No bargain; isn't best make, either."

I went to three houses. All said the same. Then went to firm—auction was held in rented room, another street—asked for that make.

"Don't carry it, madame." I looked stupefied. "Carry only first-class goods. I can show you," etc., etc.

I unwrapped forks and spoons. "Just bought these at your auction sale; was told they were the best goods you had."

Tableau! And it calls itself one of the biggest and oldest jewelry houses in the United States.

Silverware Department Second Floor. Take East Elevator.

Ice-Chests and Refrigerators have taken to themselves oak panelings, gold escutcheons, nickel-plated faucets, charcoal-lined water coolers, porcelain linings, a new system of ventilation; and for the remainder of the season, $8.50 to $20.00—the latter big enough to cool off the whole equator.

$4.00 Ice-Chest has overlapping cover, casters and improved galvanized wire shelves. Very nice, and very, very cheap!

House-Furnishing Department Second Floor, West Elevator.

Then there are Fancy Decorated Double-Wall Charcoal-Filled Water Coolers, 75 cents. Price speaks for itself.

But it is Gasoline Stoves that I started out to speak of. There is everything, from the $1.25 bedroom one-burner to an elegant four-burner, patent duplex folding shelf, elegant baker—best stove in use—$15.00; with all intermediate sizes and prices.

Baby Buggies, neat, serviceable, $2.50—willow ware. In Hammocks there is everything made, at the lowest price anybody can make; 50 and 75 cents buy very good Hammocks; $1.00 buys a Sea-Grass Hammock strong enough to swing the biggest man ever made. The Paradise, something new, $2.00.

HISSED CHAMBERLAIN.

A BIG AND ENTHUSIASTIC HOME-RULE MEETING AT ST. JAMES HALL.

The Congratulatory Message to Gladstone—Sir Michael Hicks Beach's Speech at Bristol—The Campaign in England—Arrival of the American Grocers' Excursion at Bremer-Foreign News.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch.

LONDON, June 24.—What was probably the most enthusiastic meeting yet held in favor of home rule, outside of Gladstone's own gatherings in the North, convened at St. James Hall last night. Parnell was absent, but was ably represented by Sexton, who was here in better form. Every inch of the hall was crowded to overflowing. Chamberlain's name was received with groans and hisses. The effect on the audience was like shaking a red rag at a bull. The audience was comprised of all classes, from peer, peasant, clerk, clergyman, minister, mechanic, the woman of society and woman of the people. Many Irishmen were present. Sexton's explanation of the French-Carolines' law created immense interest, the chief event being, however, the reading of a telegram to Howard by Lord Sandhurst, who presided, informing Gladstones of the enthusiastic unanimity of the gathering. The exclamation from some one: "The old man will sleep well when he gets that," expresses the general sentiment of the audience. The only other important piece of political news this morning is Bright's letter to Caine. If the election is lost by Gladstone it will be primarily due to Bright's hostility. Bright commends Caine's honesty to the electors of Barrow. If any politician has faced both ways in the present struggle it is Chamberlain's whip, this Mr. Caine.

The Grocers' Excursion.

Special Cablegram to the Post-Dispatch.

BREMEN, June 24.—The Elbe, with the excursion party of American grocers, arrived here Tuesday. A very hospitable reception was given to the excursionists. The United States Consul, Mr. Albert Loening, with a committee, on the small steamboat Roland, met the Elbe at Bremerhaven. All the villages along the Weser displayed American flags, and a great crowd of people were at the bridge to welcome the excursionists. In an entertainment Tuesday evening at the Rathskeller, toasts were drunk to the guests, to "American Women," "Manufacturers," "Art," "The City of Brooklyn" and to "President Cleveland."

England.

LONDON, June 24.—Sir Michael Hicks Beach, speaking at Bristol last night, said there was an unmistakable similitude between Mr. Gladstone's proposal for the disestablishment of the Irish Church and his present home-rule proposal. In both cases he has taken sudden action in order to place himself in the office. In November last he asked the country to make him independent of the Parnellites, yet he took office as the slave of Parnell. Never had there been a more disgraceful surrender.

Mr. Sexton, in his speech at St. James' Hall yesterday, said that the Irish could secure fifteen seats in the metropolis and that that number would be sufficient to counteract the majority of thirty against Mr. Gladstone. The opponents of Mr. Gladstone's Irish bill, not having the courage to face the principle of home rule, strove to hide it in a wilderness of details. Their criticisms rested upon the assumption that Great Britain was peopled with the lame and that the inhabitants of Ireland were blind; that a nation that had carried her flag to the ends of the earth was too feeble to protect herself from an island at her door, and that the people of Ireland were rash enough to walk to their own destruction. A resolution in favor of home rule was carried with only one dissentient voice. A large proportion of the audience were Irish. Several Parnellites members of Parliament were present. Baron Wolverton, Sir Charles Dilke, Under Foreign Secretary Bryce, Attorney-General Russel and others sent letters apologizing for their absence.

GOSCHEN AT EDINBURGH.

Mr. Goschen, speaking at Edinburgh last evening, said that although the Premier had advised them to reject him (Goschen), he believed in a thorough reorganization at the last election, as he had broken no pledges and had retracted no opinion. Replying to a taunt that he had not cast a Liberal vote in a decade, he pointed out that he had supported the Liberal Government on many occasions. He insisted that the Irish question was not a test question before the Liberal party.

SPENCER AT BRISTOL.

Earl Spencer, in a speech at Bristol last night, said that the land bill was not a mere bribe or gift to the landlords, whose rights, however, must be considered like those of any other class. It was of the greatest importance that this question should, if possible, be settled at the same time with the home-rule bill. He believed that the land bill could be passed without cost or risk to the British tax-payers. It was a matter of justice that a new assembly in Ireland should try to set right a question which had been disturbing Ireland for so many years. If a Parliament were granted on the lines proposed a grievous blow would be directed against the dynamiters and fanatics.

FLATPAIN'S MANIFESTO.

Sir Lyon Playfair, in his manifesto to the electors of Leeds, says: "The essence of Liberalism is to promote national representative institutions. Ireland long had nationality which was suppressed. Ireland's discontent is England's weakness. I ask the voters of Leeds to elect me to aid Mr. Gladstone's great undertaking to give peace, contentment and prosperity to Ireland."

CHURCHILL AND PARNELL AT MANCHESTER.

Lord Randolph Churchill and Mr. Parnell are announced to address political meetings in Manchester next Wednesday. Lord Hartington will speak at Glasgow on Friday. Mr. Chamberlain will speak in the same city on July 1.

BRIGHT'S OPPOSITION.

The Daily Telegraph says: "It is impossible to suspect Mr. Bright, a tried friend of liberty and a champion of the oppressed, of native hostility to just Irish claims, and in America where his name is a household word his opposition ought to bring conviction of the union cause."

HARTINGTON'S REGRET.

Lord Hartington, in answering an elector who asked if Mr. Gladstone had good reasons for affirming a belief that Lord Cavendish, if living, would be a supporter of the Government's Irish policy, said: "It is impossible for me to say what course my brother would have thought it his duty to take. I regret that Mr. Gladstone should have thought it necessary to express an absolute conviction on a point which can only be one of conjecture."

Germany.

THE JERUSALEM MISHAP.

BEELLE, June 24.—After five years of deadlock between Prussia and England, over their respective rights to the appointment of the protestant bishop of Jerusalem, Prussia has decided to dissolve the compact of 1841, under which there were two co-commissions agreed to alternate in the appointment, and to found an independent Prussian Bishopric at the Holy City. It is thought that Dr. Reitter, the German Missionary, will be the first appointee under the new order.

In the case of Mulholland against the Pacific Express Company Judge Thayer to-day ordered the garnishes to pay into court $88 and accrued costs in three days. In this case the garnish was ordered that the sum due to the litigants and resisted liability and claimed that the sum due was not subject to seizure, and that the amended complaint did not state that the defendant had no right to the property. A vote of thanks was tendered to Dr. Reader for his services in the case. The court adjourned for the time in which he read it and pronounced the German words.

DEATH OF ISAAC COOK.

The President of the American Wine Company Passes Away.

Mr. Isaac Cook, President of the American Wine Company of this city, died last night at Eureka Springs, Ark., whence he went about three weeks ago for the sake of his health.

Mr. Cook had been troubled with a serious affection of the bladder for a year or more and for the length of time had taken no active part in his business, one of the most extensive in this kind, by the way, in the country. For over a year he had been under a severe treatment for the disease of which he died.

At the time Mr. Cook held many important positions, not the least of which was the postmaster of Chicago, to which he was appointed by President Pierce in the year 1853.

He died on July 4, 1853, thus leaving him 81 years of age at his death.

As early as 1848 he had turned his back on the West, settling afterwards in Chicago. In 1852 he was a warm supporter of Stephen A. Douglas, at that time a candidate from the Springfield bar.

MONEY.

NEW YORK, June 24. 11 a. m.—The stock market opened decidedly lower, the leading grain prices showing declines of 4¢ to 10¢ per cent. lower. Northern Pacific preferred was down 4¢, Louisville and Nashville 4¢ and Lake Shore 1¢ per cent. The market was firm throughout the list, with the exception of the coal stocks, which made further slight declines. The general market continued firm until 11:30 a. m., when it began to decline, and made range from 4¢ to 10¢ per cent, but Western stocks broke loose from everything, being decidedly stronger, and gained 14¢. Oregon and Northern were conspicuously advancing 4¢ per cent. Western Union led the list in point of activity, followed by Lake Shore, Jackson, St. Paul, and Oregon Transcon. The market, with the remainder dull, the advance was checked and the market reacted, the gains being lost before 11 a. m., when the market again became firm.

THIS is evidently a bad season for fraudulent pension bills. The frisky veto is making this a sort of annus mirabilis after long years of careless disbursement of the people's money.

MR. GLADSTON has to face the stately and dignified opposition of the London Times, but it has been the fate of that able newspaper to oppose a majority of the great reform measures which have been adopted in England during the last twenty years. For this reason the hostility of the Times to the home-rule scheme is not necessarily an augury of defeat.

A WRITER in the New York World devotes a column to the physical and mental deterioration of the reigning families in Europe. This general infirmity of ruling families may be regarded as symbolizing the steady decay of monarchical institutions. The civilized world is growing tired of hereditary rulers, and the universal growth of democratic ideas makes the outlook gloomy for royalty. It may still be true that the imperial system will best suit Asiatic populations for many generations, but the people of Europe are beginning to wish for a remodeling of their governments on a more strictly republican basis.

A SHORT time ago Senator BECK introduced a bill to prevent Congressmen from acting as attorneys for railroads which had derived rights or benefits from Congressional action. The bill passed, but has been reconsidered, and is now reposing in the lumber-house of the Judiciary Committee. Senator MITCHELL objects to this bill because "it is based on the assumption that every member of Congress who is a lawyer is dishonest." It would be just as wise and logical to say that the law forbidding horse-stealing is based on the assumption that every man is a horse-thief. Senator BECK's bill by no means assumes that every lawyer in Congress is dishonest; it is simply designed to restrain those who may be dishonest and to properly admonish all others.

CONGRESS the other day restored to a 90-year-old woman, the widow of a Revolutionary soldier, whom she married in 1815, the pension which she had lost by being dropped from the pension rolls when her state, Georgia, seceded twenty-five years ago. This shows how the pensions of soldiers' widows may run for a hundred years after the war on account of which such pensions are granted. We have paid $800,000 on account of pensions already, and the calculation that our existing pension laws provide for an expenditure of $800,000 more is probably under rather than over the mark. Persistent efforts to greatly enlarge the list of pensioners must be met and stopped somewhere, or the pension-paying capacity of our Government will soon be preempted and mortgaged for several generations to come.

THE Municipal Assembly refuses an appropriation of $20,000 for the Union Market Arcade on the ground that it is a local improvement and St. Louis has no money to spare for any but general purposes. We have no fault to find with the policy of taking care of the general wants of the city first. But if the city is too hard up to spare any money for a local improvement in which the whole community is directly interested, it would be consoling to know that her poverty is not directly due to lavish or loose appropriations for general purposes, or to leases or profuse expenditures in any of the city's departments. Perhaps, if the Coroner's office, for instance, were run upon a scale of somewhat less costly liberality some thousands might be spared for investment in improvements that would do more good.

It is reported that Mr. RANDALL will permit the tariff taxes on the necessities of life to be reduced to the extent of $50,000, provided there is at the same time a reduction of the internal revenue taxes on whisky, tobacco and beer to the extent of $25,000,000. The Democratic party has pronounced against this latter reduction, and neither whisky-makers nor whisky-drinkers ask for it. Who does?

Nobody but those who pretend to hold the strange belief that taxing the raw material used by our manufacturers and taxing the necessities of life consumed by labor is protecting labor. The reduction of taxes on luxuries is demanded by those only who wish to increase the taxes on necessities. No party in this country dares to go before the people on any such platform, and if we get no tax reduction or tariff reform until we get it, then our war tariff will abide with us forever.

REDISTRICTING.

The statesmen who desire to have the city redistricted have come to the front again, and if it is hard to understand why any one should object to redistricting, it is harder still to understand why any practical statesman should give himself the trouble to urge the matter.

That magnificent triumph of popular sovereignty which elected the present city government was not the result of bad freemen's will. The ballot which executed the will of God, was cast without regard to ward lines. Wherever the vacant lot invited bogus registration, wherever the seven-by-nine boarding-houses of the ward boss suggested palatial possibilities of accommodation for myriads of mythical voters, there was the vote cast and counted. The Recorder's corps vote was distributed impartially alike over the cabbage wards and the crowded rookeries, and the sublime and protecting genius of the Supreme Court now throws its sanctity over the unpleasant rotteness of the whole business, like a tarpaulin thrown over a slop-cart.

The curse of city politics, the crime and the shame of it all, is not that one ward has 800 voters and another 3,000, but that no ward has any voters whose votes are counted and made effective against the frauds of the men whom the Post-Dispatch has exposed and whom the Supreme Court has protected.

TRUCKLING TO ROYALTY.

While republicanism in France pays royalty the compliment of fear and ostracism, there is in republican America a great deal of that sentiment which "dearly loves a lord," and which stands ready to extend its respectful homage to its ruler.

We can appreciate the feeling which prompts the fellow-soldiers and personal friends of the Comte de Paris to assure him of a welcome in this country, although their letter was singularly inappropriate. It is also easy to understand why Mr. BARNUM should be ready to find a place for the exiles of his congregation, and to whom the policy has not been conspicuously successful.

Cuba from the greedy and cruel sway of Spain.

MEXICO is having a dull summer with only one revolution.

THE Socialist, Mr. HYND-MAN, is trying to come to the front.

THE silver men are anxious to know the bottom value of a paper dollar.

THE discretion of the picnicking anarchist is inversely proportional to the redness of his face.

THE President's marriage has not interfered with the dash and brilliancy of his talents for voting.

SENATOR EVERTS should deliver his long expected silver speech after the adjournment of the Senate.

If any of the Chicago Aldermen have been bought it should be remembered that the purchasers paid fair cash prices.

It is reported that the Apaches have eaten up their horses, and the neighboring settlers will be safe till the horses are digested.

THE New York Sun is giving premonitory symptoms of a Blaineard flop and poor BENJAMIN may yet be left naked to his enemies.

CONGRESSMAN PRICE uses 27 words a minute, but, according to the Congressional Record, some members can deliver a long speech in a few seconds.

THE Maine Republicans have nominated for Governor a man who, it is said, spells "cat" with a "k." This is thought to be a bid for the German vote.

It is not certain whether the alleged fresh activity of MAHONE is the actual movement of a live man or the mechanical muscular action of a political cadaver.

SOME think that King LUDWIG was crazy because he used to see visions; but it is the privilege of an American to see visions without being crazy except, perhaps, for a night.

THE Oregon Prohibitionists cast 2,000 votes in the recent election. If this keeps up certain able Republican papers will soon discover that J. F. ST. JOHN is a tolerably decent man.

M. J. SAVAGE.

THE METROPOLITAN PRESS.

What the Editors of the New York Journals Are Saying This Morning.

By T. LEWIS in the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, June 24.—The World says: "Mr. Morrison uttered a great truth the other day in the tariff debate, when he said that Republicans seduced members on his side of the House and then reproached the Democracy for failing to carry out its pledges. The remark is applicable to bills for spending money as well as the tariff, though in the former case the policy has not been conspicuously successful."

THE SUN.

The Sun says: "We have the River and Harbor Committee and the Senate fully matured its attack upon the treasury, the chairman estimating that the appropriation for rivers and harbors is $15,000,000, and the sum demanded by the Senate committee, and to which the Senate will undoubtedly insist the amount is $15,000,000. The amount of extra extra is nothing in the estimation of the river and harbor jobbers. Then Grover Cleveland will smash the bill and Congress will do its best to pick up the pieces and pass it over his head."

THE TIMES.

The Times says: "The statements received from the President yesterday are seven more vetoes of private pension bills. These veto messages serve the purpose of exposing the character of these pension bills, which are full of graft and gross and they furnish the public the first means it has ever had of judging of the merits of such bills. Some of the cases are so gross that the public is compelled to accept them on their face, and the ridiculous nature of the pension bills is apparent at a glance. One fellow discovered twenty years after his discharge from the army that he had been given a pension of $15,000,000. It is the rankest sort of extravagance, and the sum demanded has grown to $15,000,000. The sum demanded by the Senate committee, and to which the Senate will undoubtedly insist the amount is $15,000,000. The amount of extra extra is nothing in the estimation of the river and harbor jobbers. Then Grover Cleveland will smash the bill and Congress will do its best to pick up the pieces and pass it over his head."

The Tribune says: "The statements received from the President yesterday are seven more vetoes of private pension bills. These veto messages serve the purpose of exposing the character of these pension bills, which are full of graft and gross and they furnish the public the first means it has ever had of judging of the merits of such bills. Some of the cases are so gross that the public is compelled to accept them on their face, and the ridiculous nature of the pension bills is apparent at a glance. One fellow discovered twenty years after his discharge from the army that he had been given a pension of $15,000,000. It is the rankest sort of extravagance, and the sum demanded has grown to $15,000,000. The sum demanded by the Senate committee, and to which the Senate will undoubtedly insist the amount is $15,000,000. The amount of extra extra is nothing in the estimation of the river and harbor jobbers. Then Grover Cleveland will smash the bill and Congress will do its best to pick up the pieces and pass it over his head."

SEEKING CHEAPER LABOR.

The Edison Machine Shop to be Removed from New York City.

To the Post-Dispatch.

NEW YORK, June 24.—The Edison machine shop will be removed from this city to Schenectady early in October. Mr. Edison has purchased the shop of the McQueen Locomotive Company in that city, and the title was transferred to him yesterday. The present Edison machine shops are on Greenwich street, where 250 hands are employed, and recently a large building was erected in Brooklyn. In the middle of May the men employed in the works on Greenwich street struck, and this retarded the work of several very important contracts, and prevented the delivery of Government torpedo boats within the time required. Mr. Edison disposed of his Brooklyn property at sacrifice and determined to remove to Schenectady, where he can Charles Batchelor, the general manager of the machine works, said yesterday: "Ever since the strike in May it has been Mr. Edison's intention to remove the shop from this city. He had offers from Williamsburg and other places in Pennsylvania, people offering him land and money to locate there. Schenectady affords water facilities, and labor is very cheap. The work of transferring our effects will take place immediately, the shop being nearly finished at Schenectady."

WICKED SALVATIONISTS.

The Immoral Habits of Lieut. Gribbon Causing Trouble in Harrisburg, Pa.

NEW YORK, June 24.—A Harrisburg, Pa., dispatch to the Sun says: "The ranks of the Salvation Army of this town are fearfully broken through internal dissensions and moral delinquencies. The Army has been bivouacked here for some months. It is in two divisions and they occupy separate halls during the week day and evening meetings, but on Sunday they join forces and attack the churches every time. The Army is in a small or large division, is under command of a captain whose home is in New York City. The other division is commanded by Lieut. Gribbon, an Englishman, who also came here from New York.

Three weeks ago Gribbon mysteriously disappeared and for the days no trace of him could be discovered. This morning he was found in a neighboring town, where he had been indulging in a protracted tussle with John Hart-eck, a return to his command somewhat the worse, pincers had pinched him and abated zeal in the cause. The captain, who is a strict disciplinarian, put him on trial before a court martial and he was condemned to the troop. The Lieutenant then organized another force, which he called the Salvation Navy, and a number of soldiers enlisted under his banner. This morning he was found in the two divisions, which culminated yesterday in the arrest of Lieut. Gribbon on the charge of having practices with two or three women of the town. The young man confessed to all his criminal practices and gave full details concerning them. After the hearing
